Employment:

- Of the May 2011 Covenant graduates who are employed, 65% obtained employment related to their major.
- The types of employment that our May 2011 Covenant graduates obtained include:

  Business owner, trading analyst, staff auditor, elementary school teacher, copywriter, secondary school teacher, community development officer, violin instructor, bank examiner, ophthalmic medical assistant, sales, real estate broker, marketing strategist, and newspaper reporter.

Graduate School:

- Of the May 2011 Covenant graduates who have applied to graduate school, 76% have received acceptances.
- Of the May 2011 Covenant graduates who were admitted to graduate school, 76% were admitted to their top choice.
- The graduate degrees that are being pursued by our May 2011 Covenant graduates include:

  Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT), Masters of Sports Administration, Masters in Divinity (MDiv.), Juris Doctor (JD), Doctor of Chiropractic (DC), Doctor of Medicine (MD), Doctorate in Nursing Practice (DNP), Master of Arts (in Teaching, Biblical Counseling, English, Religion, Church History), MD/Ph.D., Master of Library and Information Science (MLIS), Master of Physician Assistant Studies (MPAS), and Master of Science in Nursing (MSN).

!Plans after graduation for our May 2011 Graduates

Data is from the senior exit survey administered April 15, 2011 and the 6 month follow-up survey administered on November 22, 2011 (response rate 86%).